JOHNSTOWN-MILLIKEN ROTARY CLUB

The Johnstown/Milliken Rotary Club met at 7 a.m. in Johnson's Corner for its May 9 meeting.

Nancy Mayer gave the invocation, and Torrin Williams led the club in the Pledge of Allegiance and the Four-Way-Test.

Guests included Linda Measner, who has applied for membership, Eli Wilcox, Mike Fitzsimmons from the Greeley Centennial Club, and Past District Gov. Karen Sekich of the Longmont Twin Peaks Club. In lieu of singing to guests, club members "danced."

Tonight (May 16) at 6:30, the club will host Bedtime Reading at the Milliken Police Dept. Featured are firefighters and medics. All children are welcome.

Club member Colleen Flack noted she has been in contact with the Chautauqua committee, and that it would like the club's help with greeting visitors again this year.

Member Dennis Reed said he was planning a tentative trash pick-up day on July 27.

President Elect Jerry Dunn reminded members the 2nd annual Rotary Cup Golf Tournament is fast approaching, and recruitment teams should meet to establish plans of action. The tournament is scheduled for July 13 at The Mad Russian Golf Course in Milliken.

The week's program, "Service Above Self," was presented by Karen Sekich. As part of her program, she shared details about her club's water and sanitation projects in Nicaragua.

The Johnstown/Milliken Rotary Club meets every Thursday at 7 a.m. at Johnson's Corner. The board of directors meets the second Monday of the month at 6:30 p.m. at the Milliken Police Department.
