*Editor's note: We present to you three submissions from our readers. We leave it to you to decide which story speaks to you and which story most represents the tale of the photo of stone cairns. We thank all who took the time to write and to think. We also salute those who courageously answered our challenge and bared their creative vision to the scrutiny of their friends and neighbors. Great is the faith of the writer, greater still the benefit to the reader. "Adventure can be an end in itself. Self-discovery is the secret ingredient that fuels daring."
