CHEERFUL LEARNERS

Joyelle Worley, Karen Massaro, and Debby Worley admire the scenery and the beautiful roses grown by club member, Nancy Rutt, during Monday's monthly meeting of the Friendship Garden Club. The club has been quite busy lately, taking on the jobs of planting a flower bed and two urns at the Johnstown Cemetery entrance. The Garden Club is also responsible for deadheading the 41 planters and the ground-level planters at each end of the downtown area. If you love dirt, you are welcome at the Friendship Garden Club! For information, call Gloria Dunn at 396-2619, or Julie Dowling at 587-9990. Photo provided by Julie Dowling Bonnie Ruppert and Ruth Nelson hosted Monday's Cheerful Learners meeting at the Parish House in Johnstown.

Barbara Sloan opened the meeting with the pledge to the flag and the club collect.

Minutes of the previous meeting were approved as read. The treasurer's report was given. The group then approved its usual $50 gift to the summer reading program.

Some fair material was received, but no request for clerks. Sandra Hays reported she had delivered the items the group had donated to the Woman's Place.

Those connected with the Parish House told of the Quilt Show on Oct. 20. Tickets are on sale for the quilt to be given away. Members will be contacted to help in various ways.

Roll call was held last, with each member receiving her birthday gift when her name was called. The group also decided on a couple of Sunshine projects for the month.

JOHNSTOWN-MILLIKEN ROTARY CLUB

Last Thursday, the Johnstown/Milliken Rotary Club met at 7 a.m. in Johnson's Corner for its June 7 meeting.

Willie Grauberger gave the invocation, and Torrin Williams led the club in the Pledge of Allegiance. President Colleen Flack lead the group in the Four-Way-Test. Guests included Melissa Cunningham and her friend.

The club will hold a "Changing of the Guard" ceremony from 5:30-9 p.m. June 29 at Hays Park in Johnstown, where President Flack will turn the gavel over to the incoming president, Vivian Tapp.

Club member Pastor Bob Weber and his guests, Kathy Smith and Olivia Eldred, provided the morning's program: an overview of Grace Community Church's Outreach programs.

The club is going to host a golf tournament on July 21 at The Mad Russian Golf Course in Milliken. The tournament is open to the public but will also feature a Rotary Team challenge where teams from area Rotary Clubs will compete for a travelling trophy. Cost of the tournament is $80 per player, which includes a cart and catered meal. Sponsorship opportunities are also available starting at $25. For more information, contact Jerry Dunn at dunn.jerryd@gmail.com, or 534-1410.

The Johnstown/Milliken Rotary Club meets at 7 p.m. every Thursday in Johnson's Corner. The Board of Directors meets the second Monday of the month at 6:30 p.m. at the Milliken Police Department.
