CHEERFUL LEARNERS

The October meeting of Cheerful Learners was held on Monday at the home of Johnnie Ullmann, with Ruby Spaur as her co-hostess.

Barbara Sloan called the meeting to order with the pledge to the flag and the club collect. Ten members responded to roll call.

There was no treasurer's report due to the absence of Club Treasurer Helen Chestnut.

Virginia Morris presented a memorial service for Lyn Russell and Barbara Tregoning with all members taking part. Cheerful Learners have lost two members this year. A motion was made to donate $150 as a memorial to Barbara. This motion carried.

A thank-you note was read from Faye Furuglyas of United Methodist Women for help with the funeral dinner of Barb Tregoning.

Jean Hoffman gave a short program on voting, and then everyone tried to match up photos of baby pictures with several later pictures. Jean also gave greetings to all from Virginia Nazarene via a phone call the night before.

The next meeting is scheduled for Nov. 18 at the home of Ruby Spaur with Ruth Nelson as he co-hostess.

JOHNSTOWN-MILLIKEN ROTARY CLUB

The Johnstown/Milliken Rotary Club met at 7 a.m. in Johnson's Corner for its Oct. 3 meeting.

Michael Wailes gave the invocation, and Club President Jerry Dunn led the club in the Pledge of Allegiance and the Four-Way-Test.

Guests included Robert Polan, Cindy Polan, Liam Burack, and Preethi Burkholder.

After welcoming the guests, club members sang Happy Birthday to club member Jim Burack.

Club members applauded Burack, Linda Beck, and Jordan Jemiola for their work in the aftermath of the flooding in Milliken – Beck and Jemiola are members of the Town Board.

Robert Polan was officially inducted into the club as a member. In addition to his membership packet, which includes his Rotary pin, Robert also received the traditional Johnson's Corner Cinnamon Roll.

Ed Spreng reported that he had collected the aluminum for the two recycling drop-offs and cashed it in for around $100.

The program for the week was presented by Preethi Burkholder, author of the book, "Ghost Towns of the Rockies." She gave an educational and entertaining presentation on the mining towns of the Rockies.

At the Oct. 10 meeting, Roy Hucke gave the invocation. Dunn led the club in the Pledge of
